

Resume

Major Brad Gallup USMC, USAF (Ret.) is the President and CEO of Cable-Safe LLC. Mr. Gallup has extensive leadership and managerial experience after having completed a successful career in two military branches.

He enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 1975 as a diesel mechanic and received his honorable discharge in 1979 with the rank of Sergeant. In 1985, after resuming active duty, he was awarded a commission through the Air Force Officer Training School (OTS) and served as an Aircraft Maintenance Officer for over 17 years. During this period he served his country in Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm where he was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal. He held a wide variety of flight line leadership positions including commanding five Fighter Squadron Maintenance Units until his retirement in 2003.

Mr. Gallup was awarded several military commendations including:

- Twice awarded Air Force Meritorious Service Medal
- Four times awarded Air Force Commendation Medal
- Twice awarded Air Force Outstanding Unit Award

Mr. Gallup is also a certified and trained Grief Facilitator who has been on the staff of the Tragedy Assistance for Survivors (TAPS) for the past 10 years working with families who have lost a military family member. He is also a drop-off coordinator for Cell Phones for Soldiers to recycle cell phones to purchase free phone cards for service members serving in both Iraq and Afghanistan.

Both Gallup Innovations and Vet Biz Safety Tools were founded by Mr. Gallup in 2003 as Service-Disabled Veteran Owned Small Businesses (SDVOSB). In 2004, Vet Biz Safety Tools became the primary representative of Cable-Safe products to the Government, DOD, and Educational organizations. In October 2007, he purchased Cable-Safe and its innovative 70-product cable management line. Cable-Safe has become a leading workstation solutions provider to both government agency and commercial industry customers